Xulon Press presents stories of true adventures on board a cruise ship.

TORONTO (PRWEB) SEPTEMBER 19, 2020

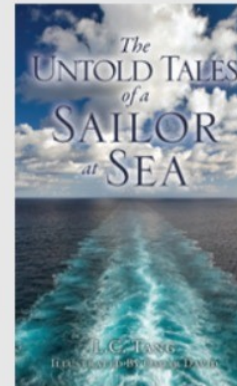

Author L.C. Tang shares her experiences as a crew member on a cruise ship in The Untold Tales of a Sailor at Sea ($15.99, paperback, 9781632214270; $7.99, e-book, 9781632214287).

Tang celebrated her 30th birthday with a cruise that would change her life. That first experience inspired her to get a job on board a cruise ship so that she could continue the adventure. In her memoir, she shares how she overcame her fears of the unknown and was rewarded with a world of new opportunities.

“Finding growth in unexpected social, emotional and spiritual avenues leads one to explore how it is possible to reach new horizons,” said Tang.

Lincee Tang worked as a peripatetic musician, fitness gym instructor and then as a sailor cruising around the world entertaining in various capacities. Tang’s interests lie in cooking, tasting new recipes and learning languages.

Xulon Press, a division of Salem Media Group, is the world’s largest Christian self-publisher, with more than 15,000 titles published to date. The Untold Tales of a Sailor at Sea is available online through xulonpress.com/bookstore, amazon.com, and barnesandnoble.com.
